And, pining for the joys of youth,
I tread the old familiar spot.
Only to learn this solemn truth:
I have forgotten, am forgot
Yet here's this youngster at my knee
Knows all the things I used to know;
To think I once was wise as he'—
But that was very long age.

I know it's folly to complain Of whatsoe'er the Fates decree;
Yet, were not wishes all in vain.
I tell you what my wish should be:
I'd wish to be a boy again.
Back with the friends I used to know
For I was, oh; so happy then—
But that was very long ago!
